

J. Oskam Steel specializes in custom steel fabrication, general plant maintenance and has been in business for over 45 years. Our company's philosophy is based upon continuous improvement and relies heavily on our training programs, which emphasize employees' direct involvement. Our aim is to respond to our customers' ever-changing needs in the most cost-effective and efficient ways. We are looking for an enthusiastic, energetic and driven individual to help support our production team in the role of an Industrial Millwright Mechanic.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Mechanical Skills: Understanding of tools for the purpose of installing, maintaining and fabricating machinery, equipment and pipe.
- Strength: Ability to lift heavy objects, physically manipulate objects with tools.
- Technical Skills: Ability to understand blueprints and technical documents to put machinery together.
- Troubleshooting: Ability to identify and trace problems to the source and resolve issues

Requirements:

- Certificate of Qualification as an Industrial Mechanic Millwright preferred
- Second Year Apprentice or higher is required
- Mechanical aptitude is needed

Compensation & Benefits

- Wage based on experience and performance ability
- Pension Plan
- Drug and Dental
- 40 hours a week
- Overtime as needed

Job Type: Full-time